

Food Clinic Was Conducted

The Food Preservation Clinic was held Tuesday, April 22nd, for 30 representatives of the various Home Economics clubs in Putnam county. Under the direction of Lucile Smith, home demonstration agent, the ladies tested pressure canner gauges, cleaned and assembled various safety valves and discussed various types of canners available.

During the afternoon the women discussed how to prevent spoilage and poor quality in home canned foods. The 40 jars of fruits, vegetables and meats furnished by the ladies for judging canned foods showed that the majority of homemakers follow the latest improved methods of canning. The film "Frozen Foods Today" stressed the importance of following directions for home freezing of foods very closely. Materials available for freezing foods were displayed and discussed along with several time and labor saving devices.

Bulletins used at the meeting were "Take Care of Pressure Canners," "Types of Spoilage," "The Way to Successful Canning," "Home Canning of Meats," and "Freezing Farm Foods." Those present were: Mrs. Blanche Kirkham, W. Madison; Mrs. Claude Newgent, Clinton; Mrs. M. F. Boyd, Warren; Mrs. Gene Gooch, Bainbridge; Mrs. Clarence Steward, Bainbridge; Mrs. Howard C. Dean, Sr., Maple Heights; Mrs. J. M. Followell, Russell; Mrs. Frank E. Looking at Life

Erich Brandeis'

A couple of weeks ago a young lady who wants to be a writer asked me to give her some of the fundamental rules of good writing.

I complied with her request, and among the first requirements I told her that she must be brief and express herself so simply that even the least cultured person could understand what she was talking about.

So today I received a little note from her, thanking me for my advice, and enclosing a clipping from the Montgomery News Messenger, published weekly in her home town, Christiansburg, Va.

"Look at this," she writes. "Is the enclosed a sample of good writing? I don't think it is."

The "enclosed" is just one sentence from a legal notice, and read as follows: "The purpose of these proceedings is to cause to be transferred and paid over to the Wachovia Bank and Trust, guardian of Frank Christian Gray, infant, of the proceeds from the sale of certain real estate lying and being in Montgomery County, Virginia, which is a part of the subject matter of a Chancery cause now pending in this Court, under the short style of Claudia Palmer Young and others vs. Frank Christian Gray and others, which said funds are now on deposit in The First National Exchange Bank of Roanoke, at Roanoke, Virginia, to the credit of George S. Shackelford, Jr., Special Commissioner, in the said Chancery cause subject to the further order of this Court."

A fine mess of words, isn't it? Yet, is it any worse than the average lease, contract, deed, insurance policy or other legal papers you have signed and are supposed to have read before signing?

Will we ever get over the idea that pomposity is dignity, complication wisdom?

I shall never forget the incident when Ray Long, the famous editor, cabled Irving Cobb, who was then in Paris, to write a 3000 word story for Cosmopolitan Magazine and send it along within a week.

"Haven't time to write 3000 words," Cobb cabled back, "will 10,000 do?"

Brevity is the result of thinking. It takes time to think.

Words should come not out of a typewriter or a pen but out of the mind.

It takes quite a bit of fertilizer to grow a few flowers.

Let our words be the flowers—the fertilizer our thoughts.

TOKYO, April 24 (UP)—Father Edward J. Flanagan, head of "Boys Town," Neb., told 76 Japanese newsmen today that "religious training and love" could be instilled in Japanese youth despite the fact that their country is "non-Christian."

Father Flanagan's remark was made after a Japanese Catholic reporter reminded the priest that Japanese leaders were atheistic and not interested in religion.

Father Flanagan replied he was positive that in "non-Christian Japan, some form of moral code based on love must be formed for teaching children."

Cy Hartman finally got his new barn painted, but plenty of folks had a hand in it. Whenever someone got a free day, or a little extra time, they'd come over and help out with paint and brush.

And Cy, to show his appreciation, held a big "barn warming" Saturday—for all the folks who'd helped him (but not barring those who couldn't). Ma Hartman supplied sandwiches, and Cy rolled out a mellow keg of beer.

You'd never think of a barn as "homelike." But with those lanterns hanging from the rafters; milk shift tables spread heavy food; and Ed Carey's fiddle playing while the folks enjoyed the beer—Cy's barn was sure a mighty hospitable-looking place!

From where I sit, it's just as appropriate to have a barn warming as a housewarming. If only because it's another chance to get neighbors together in spirit of good fellowship.

Julius A. Krug

Gen. A. A. Vandegrift

John W. Snyder

ON CAPITOL HILL, Interior Secretary Julius A. Krug tells a House committee investigating mine disasters that federal safety inspectors are UMW members—a fact overlooked by John L. Lewis in his charge that the government failed to take safety precautions. On the other side of the Capitol building, U. S. M. C. Commandant Gen. A. A. Vandegrift blasts the Army-Navy merger bill before the Senate armed service committee, stating it will reduce the USMC stature to "military impotence." At the same time, the Senate finance committee is asked by Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder to turn down the GOP sponsored House approved $3,994,000,000 income tax cut. (International Soundphoto)

Without Painful Backache

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
